Harold Lamb saves up considerable money and when his father sends him to college he is determined to do everything possible to achieve popularity. This willingness makes him an easy victim for the college jokers. He is persuaded to make a speech in which he pulls a funny little jig and asks all to call him "Speedy" just as he saw an actor do in a motion picture. He tries to make the football team and even consents to take the place of the dummy at practice, but his pluck is only rewarded by being made water boy while believing he is a substitute. He is kidded into giving a big blowout and his new evening suit is only basted together and it comes to pieces on the ballroom floor. The college cad gets fresh with the girl and he thrashes him and then learns that he has been kidded all long. He determines to make good in the big game and finally when no one else is left he is sent in. He makes a lot of boob plays but finally scores the winning touch down and becomes the college hero, and of course wins the girl.
